How we get the information and why we have it

Most of the personal information we process is provided to us directly by you for one of the following reasons:

- Carry out our obligations arising from any contracts entered into between you and us
- Notify you about changes to our service
- Send newsletters from time to time
- Ensure that content from our site is presented in the most effective manner
- To administer our business and support those who work with us
- To comply with legal or regulatory requirements

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the lawful bases we rely on for processing this information are:

- a. Your consent. You are able to remove your consent at any time by contacting joanna@wildgeeseleadership.co.uk
- b. We have a contractual obligation.
- c. We have a legitimate interest.

What we do with the information we have

We use the information that you have given us in order to:

- Enable your use of any services that we may provide through our website
- Supply you with our services
- Send invoices and payment reminders to you
- Deal with enquiries and complaints
- Comply with our legal and regulatory obligations

We do not share information with any third-party unless at the request by the Police or any other statutory authority or regulator who has a reasonable need for this information to effectively conduct their business e.g. criminal investigations.

How we store your information

Your information is securely stored.

We will only keep information about you during the term of our contract and following termination, 1 year.

At the end of our retention period, we will securely destroy your information.
